

Gary Borger Esquire Lectures About Divorce Settlement Issues

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE □ November 19, 2012, Iselin, New Jersey: On 12/18/12 Gary Borger Esq. was a co-panelist with Rick Kabra, Ph.D., a software engineer, and Michael Gould, CPA, a forensic accountant. Mr. Borger presented "The Top 10 Settlement Issues," alerting and warning attorneys on pitfalls that can befall their clients if care is not paid to critical issues that arise as part of settlement of a divorce case. Co-panelist Rakesh (Rick) Kabra is the President & CEO at Easy Soft LLC. Easy Soft supplies law firms with practice management software. Michael Gould, CPA is with the accounting firm Rotenberg Meril, which serves the NJ NY metropolitan area.

Located in Cherry Hill, NJ, BorgerMatez, is principally a family law and divorce law practice. The firm concentrates its practice in divorce and family law litigation, arbitration, mediation of family law and matrimonial issues, and collaborative law (one of the newest areas of dispute resolution in the family law field). Their practice includes but is not limited to, divorce, custody, parenting time (formerly called "visitation"), alimony, child support, equitable distribution of marital property, post-divorce disputes (i.e., custody/parenting time modifications, alimony and child support modifications, enforcement), domestic violence matters, DYFS matters, adoptions, and applications to relocate children from New Jersey coincident to or after separation or divorce. The attorneys in the firm also regularly prepare and negotiate all types of pre-marital and divorce-related settlement agreements. An extensive list of questions and answers which regularly are asked by family law clients can be found at their website. For more information, call (856) 424-3444 or visit <http://www.njfamilylaw.net> .

#

Gary Borger ESQ. Bio